Norfolk Local Councils 2022 conference for Clerks and Councillors

The Norfolk Branch of the Society of Local Council Clerks would like to invite clerks and councilors from Parish and Town Councils throughout the county to the first face to face conference, post pandemic following on from the success of previous years. Our aim for this conference is to provide a new and varied programme of innovative speakers of interest to both Clerks and Councilors and to all Councils irrespective of size. We are confident that any subject your council is not directly involved with will be presented in a manner that will still be of general interest.

At the end of the conference there will be a feedback sheet and the most pertinent element of that will be suggestions on future topics. If you need to know more about something it is likely many other councils will so, please let us have your ideas.

The conference will be held at

Norwich City FC, Carrow Road, Norwich, NR1 1JE

Friday 25th March 9.15am-3pm

Ample free parking

We cannot wait to see you all in person to share ideas, network and support each other.
